Dear Norvel:

I appreciate so much your understanding and acceptance of my request to be relieved of editorial duties with 20th Century Christian. I will be happy to continue sending material for "Insight." I also look forward to editing two or three issues a year. I think I can do the kind of work on a fewer number of issues that can insure the high quality that has always characterized 20th Century Christian.

We are thrilled to know that Matt is going to be in our part of the country. We look forward to seeing him from time to time when he has opportunity to get up this way.

Anytime we can have a planning session I will do everything I can to be there. Just let me know. Thank you so much for your encouragement and the opportunity to work with you these last few months. It has been rewarding and challenging.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

Thank you for the material for the articles for the next issue of the 20th Century Christian. We are sorry that we are such a problem when it comes to getting them in, but sometimes it seems almost impossible to get them all together. We know how demanding your schedule has been, especially with your decisions of the last few months. We will put some material we have with these, and get them to Paul. He has been delayed with pressing business at Williams lately, and we have been running late with several issues, but he has another issue ahead as well as this.

You have been a great help to us in your work as Associate Editor, and we are sorry you need to be relieved of this responsibility. We want you to know how grateful we are for your time, effort and talent you have put into it. You have edited some very fine issues which have been especiall relevant. We hope you will edit two or three issues a year, and we would certainly like for you to continue sending your "Monthly Insight" material. We do want to get together with Jim Bill, Prentice, Bill Banowsky, and others, to do some real planning for the future and we hope you can join us. We were hoping to get Jim Bill out for the summer, now it seems it will be Christmas!

Thank you again for your wonderful work and your splendid understanding. God bless you in your work at Highland and may He lead you into greater and greater service. Give our love to Sue and the children.

Matt will be writing you, I am sure, about his plans to be at the University of Texas, School of Public Health, at Houston. He seems pretty thrilled about it, and we are so glad he can help some with Campus Evangelism.

God Bless and keep you,

In Christian love,

Norvel and Helen
