Dear Mrs. Curley:

Your letter regarding House Divided Against Itself was received with pleasure. Thank you for advising me of its present status. I would like nothing better than for Gospel Light Publications to publish it.

I find the need for material like this everywhere I go. In a recent retreat at the Yokefellow Institute in Richmond, Virginia, I saw the uses that Sam Emerick and his associates could be making of such material in their work with married couples and family life retreats. There are, as you well know, so many ways in which a book like this could be a helpful tool to greater maturity in home and family life in our time.

Since other publishers have inquired regarding this manuscript, I will look forward to hearing from you and a final decision regarding its publication. I will not submit for consideration to any other publisher until you have completed your review of it and have made your decision. I welcome the honor and the privilege of having Gospel Light make of House Divided Against Itself a relevant instrument of God's redemption.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist

CONSIDERATION OF MANUSCRIPT HOUSE DIVIDED AGAINST ITSELF

Your manuscript based on material originally presented on the Herald of Truth Radio has been read with real interest by our staff reviewers. Also, on the basis of their recommendation, your manuscript is on the list of those to be considered for Regal publication.

The schedule for Regal publications for 1970 and '71 is now being reviewed. And within a short time the matters of publication dates will be discussed in relation to each of the manuscripts on the "approved" listing.

When these decisions have been made, a more specific matter of G/L editorial involvement with your manuscript will be discussed with you.

Of course, you are very much interested in the implications of these decisions. And we will keep you informed. If you have any questions at this time, please let us hear from you. Otherwise, you may be sure that your manuscript has been and is receiving good attention.
