Monrovia, Liberia

Dear James:

Thank you so much for writing me. It was good to hear from you and I apologize for being so long in making reply.

Since I left Liberia I have decided to remain in Abilene as the full-time preacher for the Highland Church of Christ, the church which sponsors the Herald of Truth programs.

I'm sorry you were not aware of my leaving. Because of several commitments here, I was unable to stay as long as the rest of the group. I thoroughly enjoyed my visit in your country and the hospitality of your fellow citizens.

I'm glad your job and Bible course are bringing you satisfaction. I know you will continue to do well with them. May God continue to bless both of us as we study His Word.

Your friend,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk:

Before saying anything to you, I must say thanks you very much for writing me again, but Mr. Chalk how can you leave Monrovia without telling me? the only way I know that you have left is I didn't see you for two nights before I asked my girl friend Trucella about you whether you was sick and <sup>she</sup> told me no, then
I asked her again but where is Mr.
Chalk? Trucella said Mr. Chalk had gone to to the U.S.A. said Trucella but how come Mr. Chalk run away from me because he never told me that he was leaving so soon.

Mr. Chalk, I am coming on all right with my Bible course as well as my job.

I must go for now
until I hear from you again.

May God bless you and keep you as you study his word.

I am your friend
James C. Blake
