Dear James:

I was thrilled to receive your letter of June 17 and know of the excellent grade you received in your Public Speaking Course. I would be interested in the evaluation and report which grew out of your study of the tapes I sent. You are extremely thoughtful in returning those tapes for which I send my gratitude.

If I can be of any further help at any time, please let me know. Thank you again for letting me know the result of your effort and for your returning the tapes.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk:

These are the tapes you sent me for the project we were doing in a public speaking course. Thanks very much. I thought you might be interested in knowing that the study and course grade was a 4.0. I'll try to send you a summary of the report as soon as it is returned to me.

Again, thanks very much for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
James Edgar Bruce
