Dear Ivory:

I am sorry that you will not be able to be with us at the Yokefellow Retreat in Richmond. I feel you could have made a significant contribution to our discussion, but I understand your situation.

Thank you for the encouragement you were to me by your presence in Dayton. It was good to be with you and have the opportunity for sharing our faith. I esteem you highly as a brother in Christ and pray God's blessings be yours in your work, and in your plans.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist

Dear John:

Thanks for the invitation you tendered me in your most recent letter. This retreat in Richmond will be great I am sure. At this present time I have accepted a job here in Huntington which will tie me down to shift work for the next few months, therefore, I will be unable to come.

As usual, you did a very splendid job in Dayton at the Decency Rally. I always appreciate being in your presence. There is so much to be gained from such an encounter. May God ever bless your efforts.

Here is a thought which came to me which I hope to use continually and I now insert it in my closing:

May last night's dreams become today's realities.

Sincerely,

Ivory
