Dear Miss Diggs:

Thank you so much for your letter. You were so kind to take the time to let me know of your appreciation for our visit to your country. It was our privilege to be there and to meet many of your countrymen. We were treated with the greatest warmth and hospitality and continue to thank God for the opportunity to be there and share our faith in the Lord Jesus.

I commend you for your desire to continue your studies and strive for the nursing profession. I regret that we have no funds for helping you in this regard. Please know that we are interested in your needs, and will pray to God that your needs will be met. Continue to trust Him and remember that we love and respect your strength and courage.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

If you're going to your dad's birthday, please let me know if there are any children's activities planned. I'd love to see you there. Your mom is quite the hostess, and you really put on a wonderful show.

Your writing this time was quite good. I'm always amazed by your attention to detail and grammar. Keep it up! You're doing a great job. Let's make sure you stay healthy. I'll be the one to spot you if you're not.
