Dear Don:

It was extremely thoughtful of you to write about my decision to remain at Highland. The time you took and the sentiments you expressed came as a gladly welcomed encouragement.

Highland faces some of her most critical times just ahead. I have no "wild" dreams of "great accomplishments" but have placed myself in the hands of God for His "will and purpose" to be worked (Phil. 2:12-13).

The greatest challenge for me is the spiritual challenge of allowing Jesus Christ to be my constant Ruler-Lord. Will you pray right now that in every situation regarding my work here I will be God's man and not my own or someone else's? Thank you for helping in this effective way.

I treasure our friendship and hope that the future holds many more opportunities for our mutual service.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
