Dear Benjamin:

Your good friend, Don Dunavant, keeps me informed about your progress. Don has a great esteem and admiration for you and speaks about you often.

I am writing to let you know of my genuine concern for you. I hope that you will find everything working out for you in the next few weeks and months as your lawyers continue to work for you. Please be assured of my personal concern and interest. If there is any way I can meaningfully assist you, please feel free to call on me.

Your friend,

John Allen Chalk
