Dear Zebedee:

Thank you for agreeing to participate in our Book Review Service. I can well understand the pressures of your schedule and will not expect to hear from you until the first of May. Do not feel pushed to have to read a new book. Out of your own special studies and experiences in Detroit there must be some material that you have already read and would want to review for your audience. Keep in mind that it is a "lay" audience, but one that desperately needs some of the insight that you have. Share with them any book that has been especially meaningful to you.

Thank you for agreeing to help.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
