Dear Sirs:

I have known Charles R. (Skip) Watson, Jr., S.S.#41948827, for the past three years. He was a student at Abilene Christian College during this time. He attended services and Bible classes of this congregation faithfully.

On many occasions I talked with Mr. Watson about his personal religious beliefs. I believe him to be an extremely thoughtful and sincere individual. On no occasion have I sensed anything less than complete honesty regarding his personal convictions.

I ask you to give his appeal for CO status your most careful attention. My personal association with him causes me to believe the convictions which prompt him to follow a course of non-participation in the military are genuine, based on a continual study of this question over the past several years.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
