Dear Rose and Jim:

Thank you so much for the short note and the check. I was so deeply pleased at your wanting to get my book in the hands of a number of other people in your area. I do hope you had no problem in selling the other books and covering the cost of your check. If you do have any difficulty with it, please let me know and return any of the books you aren't able to sell and I will be happy to refund your money.

I was distressed to hear that Jim had to spend so much time in the hospital. I do hope that everything works out well with both of you and especially with your move. I send you my prayers and hopes that both of you will continue to grow in the faith and that Jesus' Church will be used by God to reach Jim's parents in a significant way.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
