Los Angeles, California

Dear Ron:

The enclosed receipt is for your own files if you have any need of it. I am happy that all of this is behind us now, and that not only are you in Los Angeles but obviously you are having a great ministry.

I was saddened to learn of the death of your sister-in-law and tried to contact you and your wife during the time you were in Arkansas, but was unable to do so. I treasure our friendship and fellowship. My prayer is that God will use you mightily in 1970.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
