

---

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

---

1-15-1970

To: Robert Randolph

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

---

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1970). To: Robert Randolph. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/2038>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

January 15, 1970

Mr. Robert Randolph
Dana Hall School
Wellesley, Massachusetts

Dear Bob:

Thank you for a prompt response to our proposed Book Review Service. Already I have received some reviews for our first number. I hope you will be able to send one in for it also.

Thank you for giving me Albert Baird's name. I have written him regarding his participation in this effort. If you know others, especially those who are interested in adult spiritual renewal, that you could recommend, I would appreciate it. It's always heartwarming, as in the case of Albert Baird, to have you recommend one who is "much more evangelical" than some of your friends!

Things here are as expected, but there are also some bright spots. I suppose the greatest weakness in the whole program is my own personal, spiritual struggle with the total situation. John and Lula are among our greatest supporters. I get so much encouragement from them.

Thanksyou again for being a part of our special Book Review Service.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

JAC:lc

C
O
P
Y