Dear Prentice:

I'm sorry that we did not get a chance to visit during the ACC Lectures. I knew your day was so filled that it would be a real imposition to try to spend any time together. I also had folks running out of my ears here in the office and other places. I was thrilled at the way God used you during the ACC Lectureship. Your testimony and commitment is being seen and heard by hundreds and thousands of people. I thank God for you and pray his even greater use of you in the days ahead.

Would you please get ^a copy of Paul S. Res' Don't Sleep Through the Revolution and review it for our Campus Evangelism Book/Views. I am sorry that I do not have a review copy the book but you can find it at any bookstore. It is published by Word Books, P. O. Box 1790, Waco, Texas, 76703, and costs $2.95. Your order number for the book is number 80103 should you need it. I would appreciate having this within the next thirty days, if at all possible. I think it is the kind of book that can say something both to the church there at San Fernando and to congregations all over the country. I know you are rushed but if you could do this it would be a great help.

Your brother

John Allen Chalk
