Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson
535 Murfreesboro Road
Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Patsy and Bill:

The highlight of our visit to Nashville last Sunday was getting to be in your home. The meal was so delicious but the company was even greater. The hospitality you showed us made a great impression on us because we were starved for the kind of people you invited to your home that evening.

Sue and I feel like we know both of you so well and yet, we have so few occasions to be together. Thank you for giving of yourselves in a way that has made us feel so close to you, in spite of the limited times we have been together.

It was so thoughtful of you both to take time out of schedules that we know must be very crowded to not only invite us, but other mutual friends of ours in for a beautiful and relaxed evening.

May God bless all that you and your family do in your response to the love of God in Christ Jesus.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
