Mrs. I. T. Hunter
1417 West Lollar
Tyler, Texas

Dear Mrs. Hunter:

Thank you so much for the annual report of the Human Relations Council of the city of Tyler. I was very pleased to get this report and even more pleased at your thoughtfulness in sending it.

It was also somewhat ironic that one of the strongly critical letters I recently received regarding my work with the Governor's Committee on Human Relations came from your city. It was almost like an act of grace and certainly an encouragement for me to receive this report from you.

Again, thank you for remembering me.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
