5-26-1970

To: M.U. Sheldon

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal

Recommended Citation

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.
May 26, 1970

Mr. M. U. Sheldon
Carlton Press
84 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York 10011

Dear Mrs. Sheldon:

A non-profit foundation, who operates a year-round program for underprivileged children in the New York City area, is interested in offering my book, Three American Revolutions, as a premium in a special fund-raising mailing they are to make in the near future. This foundation is interested in knowing what quantity cost could be obtained for the premium books. I indicated to them that I would write to you about this matter.

We are probably talking in terms of 200-500 copies of Three American Revolutions. If there is some special concession that Carlton Press could make to this organization, I would deeply appreciate it. Any special arrangements and suggestions you have regarding this matter would be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

JAC:1c