Dear Mrs. Sheldon:

The enclosed clippings will indicate some of the recent publicity given the work of the Texas Governor's Committee on Human Relations, and more specifically the attention that the press throughout the state gave to the report I made for our Subcommittee on Administration of Justice-Law Enforcement. If you have some way to publicize Three American Revolutions to all of the bookstores in the state of Texas, I am sure that in the wake of the kind of publicity which these clippings represent that you might be able to stir some interest in the book itself.

Anything your publicity department can do in this regard will be appreciated.

Sincerely,yours,

John Allen Chalk
