Dear Joe:

Thank you so much for a very pleasant lunch with you during the Lectureship week. I appreciated so much your frankness and candor. This kind of attitude will always lead to better understanding and deeper appreciation of each other. I felt that we did come to much better understanding and appreciation of each other as a result of that visit.

Enclosed you will find a copy of my correspondence with Carl Thompson regarding the youth rally there. I have also enclosed a copy of the paper I mentioned to you on the authority of elders. It is done by a very excellent young man whose scholarship I deeply respect.

Thanks again for the opportunity to visit with you. I regret that my meeting with the Manhattan Congregation will not allow me to work with you this spring. Please explain the confusion to Carl and ask his forgiveness for me.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
