Houston, Texas 77008

Dear Joe:

Thank you so much for being such a congenial host during my recent visit to Houston. I thoroughly appreciated the Monday evening service and believed it to be one of the very best youth meetings I have ever attended. Your own personal leadership, as well as that of Phil Clayton, showed through very clearly. Thank you for letting me be a part of that special effort.

I regret I did not get more opportunity to visit both you and Phil. Lamar Wiggington, a personal friend of mine, needed some help that very evening about which I talked and counseled with him and his wife until 2 a. m. I appreciated your understanding the situation. I look forward to another opportunity when we can be together.

Express my personal thanks to your elders and to Phil Clayton. It was a pleasure being with you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
