Mr. and Mrs. James Michael Barnes
2300 Jefferson Street
Paducah, Kentucky

Dear Janis and James Michael:

Thank you for a very warm visit in your home. I thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity of getting to know both of you better. It was beautiful and refreshing getting to walk through your house and seeing the relish with which you are attacking the challenge it presents.

I was encouraged by the contributions you are making to the Reidland congregation. It was a real inspiration hearing you both talk about your involvement with the Bible classes there and other forms of Christian witness. I know you must be a great encouragement to Jerry and Kathy.

Thank you for all you did to make my visit there such a pleasant one.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
