Dear James:

I have just finished reading a book by Robert C. Worley, Preaching in the Earliest Church, published by Westminster Press in Philadelphia in 1967. The book is one you should read if you have not already. Worley wrestles with the problem of religious education as it regards content and methodology. He comes to some very perceptive conclusions, in my judgment. I thought you were the kind of man who could profit greatly from reading this book and considering its thesis.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
