
John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

7-15-1970

To: James Douglas Brownlie

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1970). To: James Douglas Brownlie. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/2198>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

July 15, 1970

Mr. James Douglas Brownlie
3820 East Nobles Road
Littleton, Colorado 80120

Dear Jim:

Thank you for allowing me the privilege of baptizing you into Christ on Thursday evening, July 11, 1970. You made the most important decision of your life when you decided to confess your faith in Jesus and to obey him in baptism.

The New Testament describes what you experienced as a new birth (John 3:3-7), a new creation (II Corinthians 5:17; Colossians 3:1-10), and a vital union with Christ (Colossians 2:8-12; Romans 6:1-7). There is no greater experience in one's life, and the decision you made is the most important decision you will ever make.

I pray that God will bless you with the rich, growing personal faith. By reading your Bible daily, by praying regularly, by engaging in regular Bible study and worship with your fellow-Christians you will begin to understand even more deeply the joys of following Jesus. I pray for you a very long fruitful life in service both to God and man.

We regret that you and your family had to move from Abilene and from the Highland congregation. We know that you will enjoy living in Denver and send our prayers and best wishes for all of you in your new home.

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk

JAC:lc

C
O
P
Y