Mr. Jack Sells
Cookeville, Tennessee 38501

Dear Jack:

We ought to make our plans to be in Earlham March 19 and 20, 1971. Let's continue to pray about this opportunity. Wouldn't it be wonderful to visit again with Elton and to know something of his quiet spirit and deep faith? I can stop for a moment right now and be washed clean with such beautiful quietness out of remembering his deep, stilling words of confident faith.

You are a D. Elton Trueblood of another sort. Thank God for your faith and for what it means to me and to so many others.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
