Dr. Ira North
Madison Church of Christ
Madison, Tennessee

Dear Ira:

Thank you so much for a great visit Sunday. Sue and I were encouraged more by that one days activities than anything else in recent months. There is no way to tell you, Avon, and Dolly how much you meant to us. Thank you for taking such a long time at lunch to visit with us and to give of yourselves so freely and lovingly.

Sue and I send the three of you our continuing prayers and an even more personal prayer intercession for what you are doing. I am more excited about the Madison congregation than I have ever been. It is obvious that you are allowing God to be praised and His creatures to be served.

Thank you so much for asking me to come. I realize the possible embarrassing position it could put you in. Your willingness to invite me is just one more of many indications of your love and courage.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
