Dear Harry:

There is no way to tell you how deeply I appreciate the days and weeks you spent getting ready for the Race Relations Forum. I am convinced that a great deal of good was done. I saw nothing to indicate that this forum should not have been planned and executed as it was.

I also know that it occurred basically out of your commitment to what is right. There will be many times in the future that I will be able to use you as an example to young people who are searching for a way to be committed to Jesus Christ. You have made your commitment very clear in this specific instance and I praise God for it.

I deeply regret I had to get away so soon on Friday night. I wanted to stay and visit with you some more but these dear friends were there and ready to get on their way.

Let me know when I can be of any further help to you. Thank you so much for allowing me to be a part of this historic occasion.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
