Dear Brethren:

Let me congratulate you on the faith and vision demonstrated in the planning and execution of your Race Relations Forum. Thank you so much for allowing me to be a part of this special effort. I saw the kind of faith and courage demonstrated by you men that is so necessary if New Testament Christianity is to have its impact in our time.

Your commitment as demonstrated in this forum speaks directly to what Christ can do and has done in the lives of men and women in our time, and what the gospel of Christ can mean to the solution of many crying problems in our day.

Thank you again for your courage and faith. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of this effort.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

P. S. Nokomis Yeldell was a perfect host during my two days in Memphis. He went out of his way to make sure that every need of both President Evans and myself was met. Thank you so much for having the kind of man Brother Yeldell is to work with you and to be such a significant force for good in the entire Memphis area.
