Dear Ed:

I can easily make the first deadline you mentioned in your letter of September 10, 1970. I will do the work you have requested on the Song of Solomon. Thank you so much for asking me to be a part of this special effort. I will look forward to seeing the result of all of our labors, and pray for this book a great use by thousands of people in the years ahead.

It was such a pleasure having you and Miss Hayes with us at Franklin on two different nights during our meeting. Your encouragement was deeply appreciated. Thank you for the special personal words you spoke and for the unique way you encouraged me to preach Jesus Christ.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
