

---

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

---

12-10-1970

To: Ed Palser

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

---

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1970). To: Ed Palser. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/2252>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

December 10, 1970

Mr. Ed Palser
First Assembly of God
721 Easton Road
Dallas, Texas

Dear Ed:

Don Smothers, Chuck Chance and I were extremely pleased yesterday at the opportunity to meet you and your friend. We appreciate so much your spiritual sensitivity to not only your own conversation, but to some of the things that were being said in our conversation. Jesus Christ is very real in the lives of the three of us and we were sharing our experiences, even though we do not live in the same city.

Mr. Chance operates the Christian Book Store in Dallas. You might enjoy dropping by the book store to see him some day and getting even better acquainted with him. He is also a spiritual leader (an Elder) in the Lake Highlands Church of Christ. Don is a young business man who is a deacon in the Lake Highlands congregation and is a part of a new spiritual renewal going on within that congregation.

God's Spirit is very much at work in our world today. He also is reviving many dead churches across the land. Join with me in prayer that more and more people will be sensitive to His leading and work.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

JAC:lc

C
O
P
Y