Dear Dwain:

Thank you for responding to Harry Pickup's paper. I appreciated so much your letter and the enclosed sermon, "The Case for Social Action."

The paper is so vague and so unfounded in all of its presuppositions that I am having a difficult time getting hold of it. I hope that by the time I write the reaction in the next couple of days, things will jell. I am thankful that all fear has been removed and I can speak boldly to the issues. My only concern now is being intellectually perceptive and Biblically grounded enough to speak convincingly to the weaknesses in this paper.

Pray to that end so that some questions can be raised in the minds of those who will attend the preacher's "shoot-out"!

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
