Dear Diane:

Thank you for making our visit to New York such a pleasant one. Sue thoroughly enjoyed lunch with you. Our visit in your apartment was a real highlight of the week. We appreciated so much all the time and energy your mother spent in making our visit special.

I have enclosed with this letter a copy of the article by Dudley Lynch. I appreciate so much your own intellectual aliveness and your deep spiritual concern. I pray that God will richly bless you in all of your opportunities for service in the years ahead.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
