Dear David:

O
I am glad to hear of your change and to know of your work with the University of Michigan in the Near Eastern Languages and Literature. I can appreciate the decision you made and think it is a good one.

P
Congratulations upon the completion of your B.D. at McCormick. I am sure it was a good program and has given you a lot of strength and depth.

Y
The work with the West Side Central congregation should be challenging. I send you my prayers and best wishes for that work. Thank you so much for considering me enough to let me know of your change. I have noted it and will appreciate fellowship with you in times to come.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
