Dear Bruce:

To have known you only a short time and yet to feel so warmly toward you speaks directly to the kind of concerned individual you are. I will never forget the unselfish way you took an entire day out of your very heavy and responsible schedule to fly me to my grandmother's funeral.

I realize it was an act of kindness toward the Wolfe City Church of Christ but it also meant a great deal to me. Because of your sacrificial interest, our three-day meeting with the Wolfe City Church of Christ was much more effective and my visit with my family in Mississippi was much more beneficial.

Thank you again for such a beautiful gesture. I will not forget it, and hope that through the years there will be opportunities for me to repay this very meaningful act of kindness.

Your friend,

John Allen Chalk
