Dear Brown:

At this time, CE Book Views is not being published. I do have several issues of material ready to be published. When Campus Evangelism went under we had to make other arrangements, especially in view of the fact that there was no financing for the publication. At this point, it looks like we are going to mimeograph the next few issues and change the name of the service to "The Book Scene." I will be glad to send you a complimentary copy of the first issue in the revised format, and you can decide from there if you want to subscribe to it.

Your work with the Medical Center sounds interesting and challenging. I am glad to hear that you are enjoying it.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
