Dear Ben:

I recently received from a mutual friend of ours, John Acuff, in Cookeville, Tennessee, a copy of two of your radio lessons "Seeing is Believing" and "Who Cares?" I can't remember a time when I was stirred more deeply than by the provocative way you spoke to me through those lessons. I thank God for the kind of insight these two messages provided.

Do you have a regular mailing list to whom all your radio messages are sent? If so, please place me on it and let me know what kind of contributions I can make to underwrite the cost of such regular mailings.

John Acuff speaks highly of you because of the contributions you have made to his spiritual growth. I pray for a time when we can meet each other personally and receive the encouragement of such fellowship in Christ.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
