Dear Dr. Pullias:

O The attached copy of a letter from a dear friend of mine in Dayton, Ohio, will explain the need about which I write. The young Biafran in Dayton is extremely desirous of remaining in the country and attending school here. He is in obvious financial need and would have to have some kind of scholarship help.

P If you have any scholarships that he might be able to apply for, could you send information to Mrs. Dorothy Morrison, the author of the letter enclosed, at 610 Bowie Drive, Dayton, Ohio, 45408? Sister Morrison is the wife of brother Woodie Morrison, a gospel preacher who most recently has preached for the Collegiate Heights congregation in Dayton, Ohio, and is now completing his baccalaureate degree at Pepperdine. I know the Morrises well and recommend them highly. I believe that sister Morrison has represented the matter accurately and that the young man ought to be offered an opportunity to apply for help if you have anything open.

Y Your personal attention to this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
