Dear Al:

O
P
I regret that Sue and I did not get an opportunity to visit with you before leaving Saturday morning at the Retreat. When it was determined that the session would start at 7 with breakfast to follow, Sue and I felt that we simply had to leave because of the situation with my father and with our children. We thoroughly enjoyed being at the Retreat and getting to see so many people. I know of a number of people who were helped by the Retreat. This, in itself is a great tribute to your personal leadership and sacrifice. I want you to know of my personal gratitude for what these Retreats have meant to me and are meaning to so many others. May God continue to bless your commitment as it works out in such practical ways as this Retreat leadership.

I want you to help me convince Bob that there was no problem with his remarks about Three American Revolutions. I appreciated everything he said. He has the feeling that I might have been offended by something he said. There was no sense in which I was offended at all. I thought that everything was well done. Thanks again for letting Sue and me come, and especially for the consideration on the Retreat fee.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
