Dear John Allen,

I have needed to write you for some time. Ever since I came into your office and talked to you about my troubles, I have felt guilty. I feel like I need to ask your forgiveness for sins of mine that you know about: the sin of not completely giving my life to God, and not trusting in Him to guide my life and the sin of disobeying my parents. Of course, I have asked the Lord to forgive me, but have never felt quite clean knowing that you knew of the sins, and I had not asked your forgiveness.

This whole letter probably seems strange, but it is something I have needed to say for some time. I haven't ever been able to "look you in the eye" so to speak, just knowing that you knew of something wrong that I had done.

I appreciated so much the times you took out of your busy schedule to help me. I know that the two conferences you did allow me were very inconvenient for you, but your answer was God's answer for me.

All that I am asking is your forgiveness of these sins. This will relieve a big burden off my heart. Thank you so much.

In Christian love,

Miss Sue Bixler
