Dear Mr. Chalk,

Thank you so much for handing my letter to Mrs. W.O. Cope. She visited my uncle and aunt and offered to help them at any time - even left her phone number with them. She wrote me of their great need and of what she had said and done. This is the finest example of Christian concern and love for the needy that I have ever seen. With members like that I hold the Church of Christ in highest esteem.

I hope to place my uncle and aunt in the Williamsburg Home.

Thanks again for your kind help.

Sincerely,
(Mrs. H.M.) Ruth Blair
