Dear John Allen:

It was great to talk to you the other day. I am looking forward to seeing you. I have worked it out to come by Abilene on the way to Oklahoma City. I will arrive in Abilene Thursday evening, October 29, at 5:45 p.m. on Texas International's flight 691. I will be able to stay there overnight, provided that's convenient, and my plans now are to leave Abilene the next morning, October 30, at 10:43 on Texas International's flight 927. This should give us some time together that I feel desperately in need of in hopes that we can have a mutual sharing session that will be beneficial in both directions. My only regret is that Vera can't share it with us. She is already a little jealous about it, but as long as I promise to get back to L.A. no later than I had originally planned and not be gone from home anymore than necessary, I think she will put up with it.

Please get these times and dates on your calendar, old buddy, and I will be seeing you in two or three weeks. May the Lord bless you. I appreciate so much your positive, optimistic, hopeful comments about the Holy Spirit winning a great victory in the midst of all this turmoil, and the prospects of being a part of the Lord's plan and participants in his victory are most exciting. Please keep me in your prayers as I do you daily.

Your brother,

Jennings
