Dear John Allen:

It was good to talk with you the other day, and I trust the Lord is still giving you the strength to climb up the mountain. Regarding the Mini-Retreat we discussed, how does Friday, January 9 fit your schedule, or possibly Friday, February 5, or Friday, February 12? I think these are the best dates for us as it stands now. For your part, what we are thinking about is something like this; we'd begin about 4:00 in the afternoon and go until midnight. If possible, we'd like you to speak about 4:30 and then again at 7:00. One of these (probably the 7:00 session) would be a dialogue type meeting. You could then possibly return to Abilene if you had a Saturday appointment, but we would love to have you stay for the evening.

Obviously our program is still quite tentative, but our theme will be "Blessed Assurance." Let me know if you can be with us.

How has the situation with Walt developed? I sure hope he can be somewhere, and can exercise his potential. I look forward to hearing from you.

In Him,

Bill
