Mr. John Allen Chalk,
Highland Church of Christ,
Abilene, Texas

Dear Mr. Allen,

I want you to know that despite the Associated Press giving you the reverential honorific, I was delighted to read what you had to say about justice in Texas. It takes a brave and humane man to say such things in the first place--and a perceptive one--but for these ideas to be broadcast by a man of your affiliation takes a kind of double-bravery.

One of my jobs involves a few minutes of editorializing each night on a local news program. Would it be possible to obtain the complete report as mentioned from your sub-committee, as well as your personal remarks at the Friday meeting? I certainly would appreciate both if available, and could make what I believe would be very good use of them.

May I repeat my personal good wishes and support for you in your candor and humanitarian stance. Whatever help I might give you at any time is herewith tendered.

Sincerely,

A. C. Greene
