Dear brother Meyers:

I have no idea as regarding the nature and content of any correspondence with Dwain Dunning. I do remember his visit to Abilene two or three years ago and several exchanges between him and Mid McKnight, the former minister of the Highland congregation. You may have reference to him. If so, I suggest you write him at Route 1, Box 70, Abilene, Texas, 79601. unless you can send me copies of the correspondence, I would have no way of knowing about this matter.

Mr. W. F. Cawyer is no longer a member nor an elder of the Highland church.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Sir and Brother:

My associate, Prof. Dwaine Dunning, has sent me a copy of some correspondence you had with him several years ago.

Thinking that you might wish to take up the matter, I enclose copy of a letter sent to Highland's eldership.

Sincerely in Christ,

SAM F. MEYERS, C.P.A.

Mr. Lewis Smith, elder,
Highland Church of Christ

Dear Sir and Brother:

Have been for many years member of churches supporting the Herald of Truth. Your attention is respectfully invited to the following item in July CONCERNED CHRISTIAN:

Jessie ~~AND~~ the Elders

JESSIE MAE MEYERS

June, 1954: "Why did the Herald of Truth allow Bro. Willeford to use the expression, "Living in Adultery," seven times, when no such wording is found in Scripture?"

- "If a man had stolen a horse he'd return it at baptism, would he not?"

- "A man neither steals a wife nor marries a horse."

- "If you are going to be technical, the word Bible is not found in the Bible!"

- "Bible is the first word in the New Testament, and almost the last. (Biblos).-

Why do you use that unscriptural Expression??"

JESSIE MEYERS

"We cannot answer, for we are not agreed among ourselves." W. F. Cawyer (signed). (1955)

You are courteously urged (1) to convict this gainsaying Sister, (envelope is enclosed), or, failing this, (2), to abandon the doctrine, or failing both, (3), to resign your office as your only scriptural alternative. In Christ,
