Dear Bob:

Thank you so much for your review of Gustafson's book. I am convinced that the kind of review you do of the book is what CA/Book/Views must give our readers. These kind of reviews are provocative and challenging and should encourage reading of the book reviewed.

Thanks for your help.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

I regret not getting this to you by the first. I regret further that it does not fall into the area that you asked me to work at, but it seems to me an important book and one I would like to bring to others attention. I will be more faithful to your charge in later efforts. I am sorry that Al Baird felt he didn't have the time to take part in this effort. I told him that his reluctance meant that radicals such as myself would carry the day. I have few other evangelistic friends!

Best wishes,
