Dear Lee:

Thank you for the kind letter of December 17. It was great hearing from you and knowing that you care enough to make a judgment about the future direction of my life. It was good in Detroit, and especially good to see the way Paul Killom works with such dedication and concern with young people. He is a great servant of Jesus Christ and I hope you get to know him better, if you don't already.

I am writing Jim Corcoran, in the hope of interesting him in the work you are doing there and above all, in the interest of his making a personal decision about Jesus.

May the Lord bless you and all your brothers and sisters in the work you are doing there.

Fraternally,

John Allen Chalk

John,

Brother, I am sorry to be so long in getting Jim Corcoran's address back to you. It is 852 North Hubbard, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan 48823.

By the way, your presentation at North Warren must have been great. John Hall, formerly the minister at Kimberly Downs in Lansing where he helped us so much, but now at Dearborn Valley, says it caused both he and his wife to re-evaluate their lives. Praise God. May He continue to bless you at Highland (although now I've decided for you that you will never meet your potential until you work directly and regularly with college students!)

In Jesus,

Lee

P.S. I would never make a judgment about anyone else's life ... as you can tell! Ha.
