Thank you so much for your letter of December 2 regarding Freedom Now! I read the magazine with great interest and believe that you are accomplishing some worthwhile goals.

The enclosed article may be too long for your issue on violence. Feel free to read through it and edit it down to an acceptable length. It is taken from a Herald of Truth radio presentation made back in 1968 in which we had a significant response. I have reduced the original manuscript with the aim of making it the proper length.

I do hope it will meet with your approval and will make a profitable contribution to your readers.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk,

I have recently become editor of The Other Side (formerly Freedom Now) and have found a letter from you offering to write an article for us. Our March-April issue is going to be on the Old Testament and Society. I wonder if you have any sermons already printed that we could use appropriately in that issue? Or do you have something in mind that you could write on?

I would greatly appreciate it if you could send us an article. I would need the article by January 20, and it should be 1000-2500 words.

If you do plan to do it, let me know soon so that we can proceed with our plans.

With your address it takes courage to say some of the things you have said!

Yours,

John F. Alexander
