Dear Guy:

I was thrilled to get your note and to learn that you and your family had been in our services two weeks ago. I have thoroughly enjoyed this series I have been presenting during the month of July on "Biblical Ethics." I was excited to learn that you had been present and especially in view of your own sensitivities to the demands that a pulpit makes upon one.

I hope that sometime in the days ahead we will have an opportunity to visit personally and possibly even have our families together for an evening of fellowship and association.

Thank you again for coming to our services. We will be happy and thrilled to have you at any time you can come again.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Mr. John Allen Chalk, Minister
Highland Church of Christ
Abilene, Tx.

Dear Mr. Chalk,

"My family & I attended your evening worship service this past Sunday, and I just wanted to say how very much we were impressed and thrilled by the experience. Your exposition of the scriptures <sup>the sermon</sup> was one of the most beautiful and dynamic presentations of expository preaching I have ever heard. My wife and I both felt the total experience was just marvelous."

I regretted that in the press of the large attendance we missed the opportunity of speaking with you. We will try to come back again sometime.

Sincerely,
Guy F. Greenfield
