Vice President, Welch Allyn

Dear Mr. Blowers:

I have known Mr. George Owens of Abilene, Texas for almost five years. During that time I have visited in his home, I have observed his performance on his job, and have engaged in serious personal conversation with him.

I believe Mr. Owens to be completely honest and a man of unusually high integrity. It is my personal judgment that he would make an effective representative for your company.

Mr. Owens is a quiet man who conveys unusual confidence in himself and in the situation at hand. His naturalness is more along the lines of quiet confidence than it is unusually outward aggressiveness.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
