Dear Faye:

I was never so surprised as to see you come walking into the Fourth Avenue building a few weeks ago. I should have known that if I were anywhere in the Nashville area you would be able to find me and would come to support me. Thank you so much for being there. It was great seeing you and meeting Kaye.

I can imagine that Nashville would hold a lot more enjoyment and opportunity for you than Cookeville. I know it must be a thrill getting to worship with First Church there in Nashville. I know you are enjoying the new building.

Do you ever see my friend, Jerry Robinson, who used to be at the Trust Department at Third National? He may be out at the Branch by now. If you do see him any time in the near future, give him my regards.

Sue, Mary Beth and John are all in good health and send you their love and concern.

Your friend,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen,

It sure was great to see you again after such a long time. Kaye was very impressed with you and your message. I think she might just believe you are everything I have told her. She is an old friend and my new roommate as of June 1. I just can't seem to tear myself away from Nashville and be content living in Cookeville so I am going back to Third National in the same department (Trust). I am quite excited about it and can hardly wait to get moved. I have enjoyed working for First National again but most of my friends are in Nashville so I guess that is where I will stay.

This is Dedication week for our new building. Billy Graham spoke on Monday night. We are enjoying it so much after 2½ years at Hume Fogg.

Tell Sue and the children hello and come to see me when you come to Nashville.

Sincerely,

Faye
