Dear Ed:

Thanks for your letter. I had wanted to spend some time with you during our visit to Madison, but knew the schedule would be tight. I still remember the times we had together during my tenure at Cookeville and in your early days with the legal profession.

During the Christmas Holidays we plan to be in Nashville for a few days. I will contact you during that time. If you are in town and we can arrange some time, I would like nothing better than a good, long visit. I hope to see you sometime during the holiday season.

Keep up the good work at Madison.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

I'm sorry we had so little time to visit on Sunday. However, young men in our positions must at least appear to be busy.

In all seriousness, I was so happy to hear you and to see you, and appreciate so much the tremendous recommendation given to Abilene Christian College as it is so deserving.

I further hope we can get together in the near future. There is so much to talk about and so many things which have happened to share.

Again, wishing you and Sue my very best, and looking forward to hearing from you or seeing you soon, I remain

Sincerely,

EDWARD J. GROSS
